- Anyone can call Samaritans 24/7 on the Freephone number 116 123 or email them (jo@samaritans.org)
- It's now acknowledged that to help reduce suicide, Samaritans need people reach out to them earlier by accessing their service or calling into any branch. There are 201 branches across the UK and Ireland in most major towns and cities.

Are you interested in becoming part of our CWU NW Mental Health Network? Contact us via the QR codes above or consider learning more about suicide prevention by completing the ZSA training via the QR code below.
